Whether you're going out for a quiet dinner and drinks, or you're ready to say goodbye to 2022 with a 1999-type party, here are some hot spots in Palm Beach County worth checking out.

Blue Point Bar & Grill

Welcome 2023 with a fantastic view of the water and sounds by the 56 Ace Band at this Tequesta establishment. There will be several options available. A $20 ticket is general admission, $60 includes unlimited beer and wine, $125 includes unlimited open bar and a guaranteed table. The party kicks off at 7 p.m.

Information: 18701 SE Federal Highway, Tequesta. bluepointbarandgrill.com; 561-406-6270

Blackbird Modern Asian

Helping to welcome in 2023 with style and taste, Blackbird will be offering a four-course prix fixe menu, along with a complimentary glass of champagne, hats, balloons and party favors. Once patrons have fueled up, and loosened up, they can dance their way into the New Year as DJ Nick Flash will be spinning tunes from 10 p.m. until 2 a.m.

Information: 1511 N. Old Dixie Highway, Jupiter. blackbirdmodernasian.com; 561-589-7505

1000 North

Located on the water in Jupiter, 1000 North will offer a set menu for New Year's Eve. For the appetizer there will be caviar and soft egg crostini. Diners will then have a choice between Maine lobster salad; grilled lamb chop lollipops or French onion soup for the next course. The main course will be a choice of either Dover sole paupiette or Wagyu filet. For dessert dine on hazelnut praline mousse cake. $325 per person.
